NEWT LANE

On Trial for the Murder of Col. Roden baugh and Son, Acquitted by the Jury. VERSAILLES, Ky., March 2 - William Newton Lane is a free man Monday night, the jury in the case against Lane charging him with the murder of Col. Henry C. Rodenbaugh, brought in a verdict of acquittal at 5 o'clock Monday ufternoon. Lane, who was sitting with his wife and sisters, betrayed just a little nervousness as the 12 men filed into the courtroom, and when the verdict was read he gave vent to a cry of joy. Lane left immediately with his wife for the home of his brother-inlaw, Robt McConnell, three miles south of Versailles, where they will spend the night, and Tuesday will go to their home in Fayette county.

The killing for which Lane was twice tried occurred at the Hotel Woodford, August 5, 1895. Lane had been a guest of the hotel, and while he was intoxicated an altereation occurred between Lane and Col. Rodenbaugh, proprietor of the hotel, and Rodenbaugh's son James over a board bill, which resulted in Lane's shooting both father and son. Lane claimed that the shooting was in self-defense after young Rodenbaugh had drawn a pistol on him and Col. Rodenbaugh had

At Louisville Cut Off by High Water-Ohio River Rising. LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 6 .- Five railroads were cut off from Louisville Friday by the heavy rains in Indiana. Every line north of the Ohio has trains scattered all over Indiana between Louisville, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati. The Louisville, New Albany & Chicago and the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern had no trains in or out. The Rig Four train from Chicago, which is due at 7:30 a. m. arrived at one p. m. The Pennsylvania only succeeded in getting in one train, and the St. Louis line's service was badly demoralized. There were five washouts on the Pennsylvania, but they were repaired by 5 o'clock. The Big Four had a washout between North Vernon and Greens- of Parkersburg, W. Va., Recom burg, but all trains will run regularly Saturday. The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago has a washout near Bloomington and two of its trains are tied on the Pennsylvania and Big Four in a vain effort to reach Louisville over those tracks. The Bal-
